10 Constitution is revised by amending that section to read:

11 ARTICLE II

12 GENERAL PROVISIONS

13 SECTION 8. Ethics in government.--A public office is a 14 public trust. The people shall have the right to secure and 15 sustain that trust against abuse. To assure this right:

21 such offices shall file full and public disclosure of their 22 campaign finances.

23 (c) Any public officer or employee who breaches the 24 public trust for private gain and any person or entity
25 inducing such breach shall be liable to the state for all

3 (e) No member of the legislature or statewide elected
4 officer shall personally represent another person or entity
5 for compensation before the government body or agency of which 6 the individual was an officer or member for a period of two 7 years following vacation of office. No member of the 8 legislature shall personally represent another person or 9 entity for compensation during term of office before any state
10 agency other than judicial tribunals. Similar restrictions on 11 other public officers and employees may be established by law.

15 (g)~~(f)~~ There shall be an independent commission to 16 conduct investigations and make public reports on all
17 complaints concerning breach of public trust by public 18 officers or employees not within the jurisdiction of the 19 judicial qualifications commission.

20 (h)~~(g)~~ This section shall not be construed to limit
21 disclosures and prohibitions which may be established by law
22 to preserve the public trust and avoid conflicts between 23 public duties and private interests.

24 (i)~~(h)~~ Schedule--On the effective date of this 25 amendment and until changed by law:

26 (1) Full and public disclosure of financial interests
27 shall mean filing with the secretary of state by July 1 of 28 each year a sworn statement showing net worth and identifying 29 each asset and liability in excess of $1,000 and its value
30 together with one of the following:

31

6 to be filed shall be prescribed by the independent commission 7 established in subsection (g)~~(f)~~, and such rules shall 8 include disclosure of secondary sources of income.

9 (2) Persons holding statewide elective offices shall 10 also file disclosure of their financial interests pursuant to 11 paragraph (i)(1)~~subsection (h)(1)~~.

12 (3) The independent commission provided for in
