

Supreme Court of Florida

No. 65,879

THE FLORIDA BAR, Complainant,

v.

RICHARD D. HAMRICK, Respondent.

[November 14, 1985]

PER CURIAM

The Florida Bar charged Hamrick, a member of the bar, with violating disciplinary rules 6-101(A) (3) (neglect of a legal matter) and 7-101(A) (1) (failure to seek the legal objectives of a client). Following a hearing on the matter, the referee recommended that Hamrick be found guilty of the above-listed charges and that he be given a public reprimand.

After reviewing the record, we agree with the referee's recommendations. We therefore find Richard D. Hamrick guilty of violating disciplinary rules 6-101(A) (3) and 7-101(A) (1). Publication of this opinion in the Southern Reporter will serve as his public reprimand. Judgment for costs in the amount of $916.33 is hereby entered against Hamrick, for which sum let execution issue.

It is so ordered.
