THE FLORIDA BAR, Complainant,

vs.

DAVID N. REID, Respondent.

[March 19, 1987]

PER CURIAM

This disciplinary proceeding is before the Court on the complaint of The Florida Bar. A referee was appointed who found professional misconduct and recommended disbarment. Our jurisdiction is based upon article V, section 15, Florida Constitution. The proceeding was brought pursuant to former article XI of The Integration Rule of the Florida Bar.<sup>1</sup>

The Bar's complaint alleged that respondent had been suspended from the practice of law in Michigan due to professional misconduct involving the wrongful misappropriation of funds from an estate. The respondent did not respond to the complaint nor to the Bar's request for admissions of fact.<sup>2</sup>

1. Because this case proceeded through the filing of the referee's report under article XI of The Integration Rule, references herein are to disciplinary proceedings under that rule and to violations of that rule and the former Code of Professional Responsibility. The Integration Rule and the Code of Professional Responsibility have now been superseded by the Rules Regulating The Florida Bar, which took effect on January 1, 1987. The Florida Bar Re Rules Regulating The Florida Bar, 494 So.2d 977 (Fla. 1986).

2. Mailing by registered or certified mail to a lawyer's mailing address as shown by the official records of The Florida Bar is sufficient service of process. Fla. Bar Integr. R., art. XI, Rule 11.01(2).

Based on matters thus deemed admitted and documents presented by the Bar, the referee found respondent guilty of violating several provisions of the Integration Rule<sup>3</sup> and several Disciplinary Rules of the Code of Professional Responsibility.<sup>4</sup> The referee recommended disbarment.

Respondent has not filed a petition for review of the referee's report. Therefore the referee's findings of fact are deemed conclusive and the recommended disciplinary measure is ordinarily to be accepted. Fla. Bar Integ. Rule, art. XI, Rule 11.09(3)(f). We find the recommended discipline to be appropriate under the circumstances and therefore adopt it.

David N. Reid is hereby disbarred from the practice of law in the State of Florida, effective immediately. Execution is directed to issue for the costs of these proceedings against the respondent in the amount of $330.00, for which sum let execution issue.

It is so ordered.

and KOGAN, JJ., Concur

NOT FINAL UNTIL TIME EXPIRES TO FILE REHEARING MOTION AND, IF FILED, DETERMINED. THE FILING OF A MOTION FOR REHEARING SHALL NOT ALTER THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS DISBARMENT.
