

Supreme Court of Florida

No. 71,196

INQUIRY CONCERNING A JUDGE
re: JAMES B. SANDERLIN.

[September 30, 1987]

PER CURIAM.

On September 25, 1987 the Judicial Qualifications Commission recommended that the Court order Judge James B. Sanderlin's involuntary retirement due to a physical disability which seriously interferes with the performance of his judicial duties. Judge Sanderlin, his counsel, and his curator do not contest the commission's recommendation. Therefore, we adopt the commission's recommendation and declare James B. Sanderlin to be involuntarily retired from judicial service as of 12:01 a.m., Thursday, October 1, 1987.

It is so ordered.

MCDONALD, C.J., and OVERTON, EHRLICH, SHAW, BARKETT and KOGAN, JJ., Concur

A MOTION FOR REHEARING WILL NOT AFFECT THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS RETIREMENT.

Original Proceeding - Involuntary Retirement

Kathleen T. Phillips, Chairman; John S. Rawls, General Counsel, Tallahassee, Florida; and Mark Hulsey and E. Lanny Russell, Special Counsel, Jacksonville, Florida,

for Petitioner, Florida Judicial Qualifications Commission

George K. Rahdert, St. Petersburg, Florida,

for Respondent