

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF FLORIDA

THE FLORIDA BAR,

IN RE: PETITION TO AMEND

THE RULES REGULATING THE

CASE NO. 75,716

FLORIDA BAR -- 1-3.7;

3-5.1(G); 3-5.2; 14-1.1

AND CHAPTER 15. /

JOINDER BRIEF
OF HARRIS CORPORATION
REGARDING PROPOSED CHAPTER 15 (Authorized House Counsel)

COMES NOW HARRIS CORPORATION, by and through undersigned counsel, and states that rather than unnecessarily burden this court with a separate brief in this matter, it has read, and joins in and endorses the brief submitted on behalf of CSX Corporation and United Technologies Corporation.

HARRIS CORPORATION is a Delaware Corporation having its principal place of business in Melbourne, Florida and does business throughout the United States and worldwide markets. Harris is focused on four major businesses - advanced electronic systems, semiconductors, communications and an office-equipment distribution network. Harris employs approximately 35,000 people, including approximately 12,000 in the State of Florida.

HARRIS believes it will be adversely affected by adoption of Proposed Chapter 15 as more clearly set forth in the brief filed by CSX Corporation and United Technologies Corporation.

DATED this 18th day of April, 1990.

GEORGE E. LANE, ESQUIRE
Senior Counsel
