

Supreme Court of Florida

No. 77,196

STATE OF FLORIDA, Petitioner, vs.

JAMES ROBINSON, Respondent.

[June 13, 1991]

PER CURIAM.

We review Robinson v. State, 571 So.2d 120 (Fla. 2d DCA 1990), in which the district court affirmed Robinson's conviction and sentence for sale of cocaine, but vacated Robinson's conviction and sentence for possession of cocaine on the authority of V.A.A. v. State, 561 So.2d 314 (Fla. 2d DCA 1990), approved in part, quashed in part, No. 75,902 (Fla. Feb. 28, 1991). The district court certified the following to be a question of great public importance:*

When a double jeopardy violation is alleged based on the crimes of sale and possession (or possession with intent to sell) of the same quantum of contraband and the crimes occurred after the effective date of section 775.021, Florida Statutes (Supp. 1988), is it improper to convict and sentence for both crimes?

Robinson, 571 So.2d at 120.

We answered that question in the negative in State v. McCloud, No. 75,975 (Fla. Feb. 28, 1991), and on that authority, we quash that part of the district court's decision vacating Robinson's conviction and sentence for possession of cocaine. We remand for proceedings consistent with this opinion.

It is so ordered.

SHAW, C.J. and OVERTON, McDONALD, BARKETT, GRIMES, KOGAN and HARDING, JJ., concur.

NOT FINAL UNTIL TIME EXPIRES TO FILE REHEARING MOTION AND, IF FILED, DETERMINED.

* We have jurisdiction pursuant to article V, section 3(b)(4) of the Florida Constitution.
