v.

Case No.: SC17-997

RESPONSE TO ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY
PETITIONER SHOULD NOT BE BARRED FROM FILING PRO SE IN THE FLORIDA SUPREME COURT

The Petitioner Levory W. Hickmon was wrongfully convicted and illegally sentenced without a lawyer in Seminole County case number 02-CF-3627A, and sought relief in the Florida Supreme Court from his wrongful conviction and illegal sentence. Because a conflict of interest exists in the lower courts.

The Florida Supreme Court has sought to bar the Petitioner from access to court without first warning the Petitioner that sanctions will be sought against him if he continues to seek relief in the Florida Supreme Court from his wrongful conviction and illegal sentence without a lawyer at trial and sentencing.

The Petitioner is indigent and cannot afford private counsel for this cause. The Florida Supreme Court should first warn the Petitioner that he is in danger of sanctions before barring him from access to court, or in the alternative appoint counsel to assist the Petitioner in his pro se filings as justice demands and due process requires. “Due process requires that I receive a warning first before any action is taken ^{AGAINST} against me by the court.”

Therefore, the Petitioner respectfully asks that he be let off with a warning or counsel be appointed to him to assist him in his pro se filings. Because the Petitioner did not knowingly abuse the procedure.

It is so prayed.
