Re: Case #SC05-1150

Honorable Justice:

Amendment 3 passed last year and its proponents apparently are still not satisfied and are trying to limit even further my rights as a citizen to use the services of an attorney. Litigation as we all know is expensive and most of us would simply not be able to pay for legal expenses upfront. The only fair solution is for me to have a contingency arrangement. The Petition before the Florida Supreme Court has absolutely nothing to do with giving the claimant a larger share of the award or settlement and everything to do with restricting a person's ability to bring a valid legal claim against doctors and insurance companies. I urge the Court to deny the Petition.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Mary Masferrer
