IN RE: AMENDMENTS TO THE FLORIDA RULES OF JUVENILE PROCEDURE.

[July 12, 2007]

PER CURIAM.

The Florida Bar's Juvenile Court Rules Committee (Committee) has filed an out-of-cycle report proposing amendments to the Florida Rules of Juvenile Procedure to conform the rules to recent legislation. We have jurisdiction. See art. V, § 2(a), Fla. Const.; Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.140(e).

Under the Committee's "fast-track" procedure for considering new legislation, the Committee proposes new form 8.978 (Order Authorizing Child to Secure Depository Financial Services Before the Child's 18th Birthday).¹ The new form is proposed in response to chapter 2007-147, section 4, Laws of Florida, creating new section 743.044, Florida Statutes. disability of nonage for youths in foster care who have reached the age of sixteen, have been adjudicated dependent, are residing in an out-of-home placement, and have completed a financial literacy class, for the purpose of enabling them to secure depository financial services, such as checking and savings accounts. The statute provides that upon issuance of a court order, such a youth may make and execute all necessary documents, contracts, or agreements to obtain these financial services, and requires the youth to present the order when seeking such services. Ch. 2007-147, § 4, Laws of Fla. The new statute took effect on July 1, 2007. The Executive Committee of The Florida Bar Board of Governors approved the proposed new form by a vote of ten to zero.

After considering the Committee's proposal and reviewing the relevant legislation, we adopt new form 8.978 as proposed by the Committee and reflected in the appendix to this opinion. The new form shall become effective immediately upon the release of this opinion. However, because the Court did not publish the form for comment prior to its adoption, interested persons shall have sixty days from the date of this opinion in which to file comments with the Court.²

2. An original and nine paper copies of all comments must be filed with the Court on or before September 10, 2007, with a certificate of service verifying that a copy has been served on the Committee Chair, Robert W. Mason, 25 N. Market Street, Ste. 200, Jacksonville, FL 32202-2802, as well as separate request for oral argument if the person filing the comment wishes to participate in oral argument, which may be scheduled in this case.
